Millbury Selectmen's Meeting Digest

Board Hears Proposal for Developing 35 Acres Near Oak Pond Avenue

By Edward J. Cooney

May 31, 1988

MILLBURY - Chairman Jude Cristo called the Selectmen's meeting to order at 7 p.m. Minutes for the May 17 meeting were approved unanimously without corrections.

Administrator Earl Chase offered for consideration of approval, five executive session minutes dating back to 1986 for release to the public record. The board approved three of the five on a 4-0 vote. Two executive meeting minutes were held up until the case of Officer Sprague, who is on Injured on Duty status, is resolved.

Chase then reported on the progress of work being done on Water Street. He stated that Granger Lynch would be laying an asphalt layer on the street after which a berm would be installed along the sidewalk on both sides. Gravel will be leveled and rolled with asphalt laid to complete the sidewalks. According to Chase, the whole sidewalk should be completed shortly.

Chase then suggested that an item be discussed concerning a street opening for a driveway, as requested by Carol Goode, of Carol's Beauty Nook on Elm Street. Mrs. Goode was present in the audience to support her request. Chase noted that an application for a driveway permit was submitted.

Mrs. Goode stated that she understood her request for a street opening had been turned down. She indicated that a contractor had inquired about getting a permit but was told he couldn't acquire one. Cristo stated that the application was not filed and that there was no "Dig Safe" number. He told Mrs. Goode that the contractor has to fill out a form for the curb cut.

Chase noted that the contractor, Mario Lapriore, was experienced, bonded, and had a drainlayer's license but that he was not sure the other two contractors who would be doing the driveway, as indicated on the application, were licensed drainlayers.

Cristo explained to Mrs. Goode that she could have the driveway done up to the sidewalk. Mrs. Goode replied that Lapriore had come to the town hall and was told it couldn't be done. "You're giving me the runaround," she said. Cristo replied, "Maybe he (Lapriore) doesn't want to do the job. You might have to find another contractor."

Board member John Donnelly then said, "We haven't seen a thing. Tell us what you are going to do. You haven't applied for a permit."

Before closing the discussion, Cristo suggested that Mrs. Goode provide the board with some kind of plan.

- Moving to Old Business, the board reappointed Richard Zalesky to the Zoning Board of Appeals.

No action was taken on filling a position on the Youth Activities Commission. Cristo suggested that Chase telephone existing members of the committee for volunteers. He also noted that he had received some information on other communities that have already established a commission and that the information might assist in developing a structure for a similar commission in Millbury.

- Chase told the board that he had a brief report concerning odor complaints registered with the Board of Health. The complaints concerned alleged odors emanating from the area of Wheelabrator. He also reported on a problem at Wheelabrator on May 15, when the control panel was out of order and steam was released, causing some noise. Chase said that he was advised that there were no health problems involved and that the police department had received seven or eight calls.

- At 7:30 p.m., Steve Bavosi, representing Noel Development, developers of a housing project off Carousel Drive, was present to show a layout of hydrant placement in the 76-home subdivision. Bavosi asked the board for permission to proceed with locating 5 hydrants in the phase I stage of the development as soon as the water lines are installed. After reviewing the layout, the board voted unanimously to approve the request for installation of 5 hydrants.

- Chase informed the board that one bid was received for the purchase of a backhoe requested by the Highway Department and approved at the Annual Town Meeting. The bid for $36,250 came in under the $40,000 appropriated. The board vote to accept the bid, authorizing the purchase from E.K. Willard Company of Leominster.

- Chase then reported that he had spoken to Richard Dwinell, Chairman of the Transfer Station Study Committee, who indicated that bids were ready to go out in order to have firm figures to present to a future special town meeting.

- Under Downtown Parking, Chase noted that a new sign has been posted in the downtown area, on Elm Street, designating the times that the parking spaces could be used in the commercial loading zone area in front of the Worcester Telegram and Gazette office.

Chase also reported that funds for the municipal parking lot are not forthcoming from the state.

- A representative of the Edgerton Group, Jeff O'Connell, and surveyor and engineer Dave Lavallee requested permission to speak to the board for 5 minutes to show a proposal for development of 35 acres in the Oak Pond Avenue area of East Millbury. Under consideration is the construction of multi-family or single family cluster-type housing. According to O'Connell, no definitive plan has been developed indicating the number of houses to be constructed.

Lavallee explained that the Edgerton Group would like to build a pumping station and a 5,100 ft. dry forced main sewage line which would extend from the proposed development to an area near the Dorothy Manor School; the project would not involve town funding.

In order to avoid digging up Millbury Avenue after the resurfacing takes place, Lavallee requested that the board consider holding up the completion of the resurfacing until more definitive plans can be developed.

Selectman Wynton Adams said that he was reluctant to consider such a proposal since the road has been under disrepair due to construction.

A suggestion was made to lay the line under the sidewalk which would save digging the road and would cost less.

Cristo suggested that a meeting with the Sewerage Commission and all parties concerned be conducted during the next Selectmen's meeting on June 14th.

- At 8:00 p.m., a hearing with Police Officer Kevin Woods was held, concerning approval of a 5 day suspension imposed by Police Chief George Brady. At the request of Woods, through his attorney, the board voted 4-0 to move the hearing to a closed session; the hearing concluded at 1:00 a.m.

Returning to public session to complete several items under new business, the board approved the following before adjourning at 1:20 a.m.:

- requests from Commonwealth Gas for street openings at the following locations:

19 Main Street, new service
Elmwood Terrace, new main
21 Prospect Street, repair service
3 Hamilton street, retire service

On Wednesday, a bid opening in the Selectmen's office for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning installation at the town hall produced only one bid, submitted by Harvard Contracting Company, for $201,500. Town Meeting approved a sum of $80,000. According to Chase, the bid will be reviewed by the Board of Selectmen at their next meeting.

As a tribute to the Town of Millbury on its 175th anniversary, the Friends of the Millbury Public Library will be presenting the art exhibit, "Drawing by Design: David Macauley's Mill." This is an exhibition of 128 drawings by the noted author/illustrator, David Macauley. It will be on display at the library from June 12 through June 25. The Friends will have a special reception and showing of this exhibit on June 12, from 1-3 p.m.

Macauley has been described as an "architect-turned illustrator" because of his ability to translate the beauty of the elements of architectural design and detail into renderings that tell stories, through pictures and words, of things that mystify as well as amaze us.

Since 1972, Macauley has been a writer and illustrator. More recently, he has been involved in film adaptations of his works. Macauley is most noted for his award winning book CATHEDRAL, a fictional account of the building of one of the great monumental 13th Century French medieval cathedrals. Art and the architectural process is a repetitive theme in many of Macauley's other books. In his book, PYRAMID, he exposes the opulence and design of Egyptian pyramids. Again, in UNDERGROUND, we are given a view of the mysteries and complexities from the vantage point of the city's maze of subterranean labyrinths. Away from the architecture design of bricks and mortar, Macauley has also published a book on the architectural intricacies of the brain in, THE AMAZING BRAIN, where he "makes the gray matter of the bran look like a primeval garden monument."

David Macaulay, a drawing for his book, MILL, 1983. From the exhibition, Drawing by Design: David Macauley's MILL, organized and circulated by the New England Foundation for the Arts, a consortium of the six New England state arts agencies, with the assistance of funds from the Jessie B. Cox Charitable Trust and the Houghton Mifflin Company.

A TIME MAGAZINE critic wrote about Macauley's work, "What (Macauley) draws, he draws better than any pen-and-ink illustrator in the world." His drawing talent, with great attention to detail, is evident in his exhibit DRAWING BY DESIGN. This exhibit shows how Macauley created the illustrations that accompany his book, MILL. His art work charts the growth of a typical New England mill town, showing how a riverside mill grows from a simple wooden structure in 1810 to a gigantic textile factory and surrounding community by 1875. The strength of the pictures and the clarity of the story, MILL, (the book and exhibit on display at the Library) is the history of Millbury, the history of the Blackstone Valley, and the history that New England's foundation is built on.

Macauley was born in Burton on Trent, England. As a young boy, he moved with his parents to Rhode Island, where his father worked, and still does, as a textile designer. In a recent interview he recalled, "From the time I was seven or eight, I was always making things from cardboard, always trying to make things that worked, like elevators with accordion doors that went up and down." Although he always drew, it was while studying architecture at the Rhode Island School of Design that he discovered his potential artistic ability. It was this discovery that eventually led him into a career as an author/illustrator.

A Bit of History....

By Grace Laflash

MILLBURY - Because it is our town's 175th birthday, I would like to share a bit of history with you.

On a cold winter's morning, just a few days after the joyful celebrations of Christmas, a tragedy occurred in Millbury. December 27, 1912 appeared to be a day like all others. Employees at the Cordis Mill on Canal Street (Windle Industries now occupies the site) were arriving at the usual early hour. The events of the next few minutes would transform this day into one of horror.

Art work by Kathryn Hoye, grade 5 Assumption School

Fourteen year old Clara LeMay entered the building for the last time. Charles Adams, a fifteen year old worker, shot her and she died.

Clara had lived with her mother, Victoria, and was a member of the Baptist Church. Charles was the son of Mr. and Mr. Fred Adams.

Sutton Selectmen Begin Dialogue for Improving Communication Between Town Boards

By Terry Barnicle

SUTTON - The weekly meeting of the Sutton Board of Selectmen was held on Tuesday, May 31, at 8 p.m. in the Town Hall, chaired by Mike Chizy, with board members Wallace Johnson, Carl Licopoli, Mary K. Connor, Richard LaBonte, and Town Administrator Dexter Blois present.

The meeting began at 7:30 p.m. with a workshop session at which the following items were discussed:

- SPAIN'S COUNTRY STORE

The Selectmen investigated a complaint of a violation of a Special Permit issued to Spain's Country Store by the Board of Appeals. The investigation revealed that mulch was being stored and sold at the Central Turnpike site. According to Chairman Michael Chizy, Mrs. Spain stated that her business is a country store and, as such, can sell mulch. Chizy said that Mrs. Spain later stated that the reason the mulch was there was that her son was in the landscaping business.

Selectman Walter Johnson noted that a John Deere sales establishment was a previous occupant, "When it comes to a place of business, a new business of lesser impact or nuisance is permitted."

Dexter Blois then explained that this was not a pre-existing use. "The Zoning Board of Appeals Special Permit allows them to carry on a country store business. Landscaping mulch and 3/4 inch trap rock were not part of the pre-existing use."

Chizy instructed Blois to send a Notice of Violation to the owners.

- TRUCKS ON BUTTONWOOD

A Warrant for Exclusion will be submitted to limit truck traffic on Buttonwood Road. According to Chizy, "This road is not built for truck use; it's too narrow." It was suggested that someone be hired to conduct an official count of trucks using the road.

The regular meeting began at 8:00 p.m. and the following items were discussed:

- EARTH REMOVAL BOARD

On a motion by Chizy, Attorney James Grabowsky, of Overlook Road, was unanimously approved for appointment to the Earth Removal Board.

- REPAIRMAN'S LICENSE

Marcia Sansoucy came before the selectmen to request a repairmen's license for her business at 1 Blackstone Street, just off Route 122 to the left of Snider's Beef. Ms. Sansoucy assured the board that the business would involve only the repair of large trucks, tractors and trailers, and that all the vehicles would be registered; there will be no stripping, storing, nor selling on the premises. She also told the board that there will be no change in the shape or size of the building. The land is presently zoned "Industrial." On a motion by Johnson, the license was granted with a limitation of 10 vehicles on the premises at any one time.

- MEETING WITH THE SEWER COMMISSION, WILKINSONVILLE WATER DISTRICT, AND PLANNING BOARD

Chizy stated that the purpose of this combined meeting was to review the process of communication between various town boards. The meeting began with Chizy expressing the board's desire to coordinate all of the town boards' efforts by establishing a system which will allow them to know the disposition of any building project. In light of recent and future growth in the town, Chizy emphasized the necessity for mutual cooperation. "Everyone should know what everyone else is doing," he said. Chizy also suggested that professional engineers should make all inspections to protect the town's liability.

The Chairman of the Sewer Commission, Harold Rider, disagreed, maintaining that house hook-ups are often very simple and the cost of a professional engineer might be too great for many people. He also suggested hiring a retired engineer for this purpose.

It was also mentioned that Sutton is in the process of hiring a town engineer and that some of these duties would be part of the job. Participating in the "Dig Safe" Program was also offered as a solution, and Town Moderator Dexter Blois said he would investigate this possibility.

Discussion also included the bonding process. Blois observed that "all boards have bonds, but they're not tied in. The entire circle of boards must be notified so that there will be proper communication between them. Volunteers are now doing this; perhaps full-time people or outside contractors should take on this task. I will submit a report on this soon, and welcome any input."

- SUMMER SCHEDULE

On a motion by Selectman Carl Licopoli, it was voted that, for the months of July and August, meetings would be held only on the first and third weeks of the months.

The meeting adjourned at 9:20 p.m.

Carole Chiras Nominated for School/Business Partnership Award

MILLBURY - The Millbury Public Schools, Office of the Superintendent, has announced that Carole Chiras, coordinator of the talented and gifted program in the Millbury Public Schools, was unanimously chosen by the Millbury School Committee at its Wednesday, June 1st meeting to be its nominee for the Blackstone Valley School/Business Partnership award. This is a valley-wide program being sponsored by the Blackstone Valley Chamber of Commerce to select an educator who has made the strongest contribution in the areas of leadership and initiative in working with the business community.

According to a press release, "Mrs. Chiras has been making strong contributions to the Millbury schools through her outstanding work with community leaders, parents, and businesses over the past twenty years. One of her first efforts was to develop curiculum relating to the local history of Millbury which has involved many community members and businesses. In this process, she received grants from the Millbury Historical Society, Polaroid, and the Millbury Mother's Club."

Mrs. Chiras is presently coordinator of the Talented and Gifted Program and has received State grants and strong support from the business community and community groups. Under her leadership, a solar teaching station was installed with financial support from Brady & Sun, Goretti Markets, Learning Inc., 146 Supply, Inc., and the New Alchemy Institute. A grant was also received from the Alliance for Education, and national recognition has been received from the "Take Pride in America" contest. Mrs. Chiras has also called upon Boston TV weathermen Dick Albert and Dave Murray for presentations.

This year, Mrs. Chiras has been working closely with the Blackstone Valley Chamber of Commerce in developing a valley-wide stamp contest which has involved both the Millbury and Worcester Post Offices. Also this year, she has received Lottery Arts Council funding to engage the services of a resident artist to develop a Middle School mural depicting local history. In addition, she was instrumental in forming the Millbury School Connection, a volunteer community group serving the Millbury schools.

The press release noted that Mrs. Chiras "exemplifies the educator who has brought the school and business community together to work for common goals to benefit young people."

Books and More...!

By Joanne N. Donnelly

Whatever your interest, whatever your style, whatever your age, there is a book here that will serve the purpose. But be careful - this is summertime and we don't want to overdo.

Patrick McManus, author of books such as NEVER SNIFF A GIFT FISH and THEY SHOOT CANOES, DON'T THEY, wrote an essay entitled, SUMMER READING. Here are a few of his thoughts:

"...books containing any of the following disqualify themselves as summer reading.

IDEAS...Thinking and summer reading are incompatible.

SOCIALLY REDEEMING QUALITIES....

SELF-IMPROVEMENT...Summer is the time of degeneration,...

DUST-JACKET BLURBS...any book containing blurbs with the words sensitive, intelligent, or brilliant should instantly be rejected.

Any summer reading book should contain one or more of the following:

SHARKS - If a shark doesn't show up someplace in a book, it's probably not worth summer reading....

ILLICIT ..X - Combine sharks and illicit ..x and you have a darn good summer read.

MURDER - A murder or two should occur early in the book, unless a shark is present....

CARDBOARD CHARACTERS - Nothing ruins...faster than well-rounded, complex characters....."

Come in to read all his thoughts on this favorite summer pastime.

For those of you who are serious about getting something accomplished this summer, we are now processing two sets of books which I consider to be the encyclopedias of living in the "boonies." The first is a 12-volume set of repair and service manuals for various types of power equipment and includes: string trimmers, riding lawn mowers, walk-behind lawn mowers, rotary tillers, chain saws, compact tractors, small engines, large air-cooled engines, small AC (remember the ice-storms?) generators, small diesels and two volumes on outboard motors.

Since this is Cherokee country, we have Clymer's 12-volume set of shop manuals for just about every 2-wheel and 4-wheel drive pick-up and van that ever zipped down Boston Road. We have: Blazers and Jimmys, Ramchargers and Jeeps, Toyotas, Camaros, Mustangs and Capri(p)s, On Datsun, On Nissan, on Plymouth and Dodge, Now dash away, dash away, Econolines all. (Couldn't resist.)

Although the detailed drawings and specs might answer your questions right away, these are available for one-day loan. Anyone can learn something from these manuals. For instance, one of the tools mentioned is a "fly-wheel puller." I didn't know those little devils even had wheels.

For those of you who will be fortunate enough to get away, remember the little book stores available just about anywhere.

For those of you who will be fortunate, but will be staying home this year, we have full shelves of both fiction and non-fiction. We are also going to have a summer reading program beginning in July for children and juveniles alike. Under the auspices of the Central Massachusetts Regional Library System (hereinafter referred to as CMRLS), the theme will be SUPER SLEUTH. We will concentrate on mysteries or mysterious things (what happened to the dinosaurs?) and hope to write a dark, dank story of our own, full of villains and good guys, moonless nights and eerie sounds. (Have you ever heard the elevator shaft at the Town Hall?) Specific dates and times will be forthcoming.

One change we will be making for summer is the time of our Saturday hours. Starting on Saturday, July 2, we will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 3 p.m. The other hours will stay the same: Monday and Tuesday from 2 p.m.to 8 p.m.; Friday from 12:30 to 8 p.m. That will give you three nights a week, as usual, plus the same number of hours on Saturday, only earlier.

So, however you get here, by riding mower, diesel, outboard or Bronco II, come see us soon!

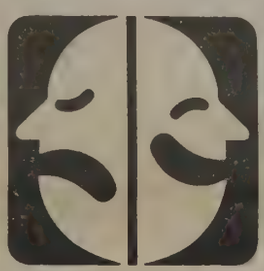
When a Good Buy can turn into a Bad Bargain...



Sometimes getting the lowest price on products or services isn't always the best value. Take fuel oil, for example. In purchasing fuel oil you not only want a quality product...but someone to stand behind that product. Standing behind a product means we guarantee the quality and at the same time we provide all the services to go with it. As a full service company backed by Central New England's leading energy group, we provide customers with dependable delivery and 24 hour priority service. We offer a full staff of licensed technicians and plumbers to take care of repairs and installations when you need such services.

So sometimes buying strictly on price may not satisfy your needs for Value and Service.

At Sutton Fuel we offer low competitive prices and the best Service in the business.

3. the reappointment of the following Chapter I teachers: Jean Duvall, Patty Hanson, Mrs. Hester, Nancy Johnson, Sheryl Luivinter.

4. Timothy Bernard as custodian.

5. the summer nursery program at the High School.

6. the appointment of Charlotte Hanks to the new position of Teacher of Music and Band.

- On a suggestion by Committeeman Edward Wilczynski, the purchase of a terminal and printer for the High School's main office was deferred until the next meeting. It was noted that funds are available for the purchase until the end of this fiscal year.

- Committeeman Alan Tuttle requested that an item concerning field trips be placed on the agenda for the next meeting.

- Dr. Sylvia commended School Committee member Jane Pojani and the High School Improvement Council for the new sign and landscaping in front of the High School.

- In another matter, Mrs. Pojani questioned the need for a paid part-time coordinator for school volunteers. She reported that she had discussions with several people who were opposed to the idea of paying $2,500 for the position, since the work involved would be concerned with unpaid volunteers.

Dr. David Troughton, curiculum coordinator, spoke in support of the paid position. He noted that he had not heard any opposing views and cited the need for someone to direct and coordinate the work done by the 75 volunteers in the system. He credited the present advisory board with getting the program off the ground, and said that the program was working well but would need someone to guide and direct it in the future. Troughton did note that no one had expressed an interest in the position as yet. He also explained that, of the systems that have volunteers, 45% have a paid coordinator. According to Troughton, such a position would bring legitimacy to the system.

Mrs. Pojani, noting that she was not a member of the committee when the position was approved, stated that $2500 may seem like a small amount, but some individuals who recently received their tax bills questioned the need for the paid position.

Wilczynski agreed that $2500 was a considerable amount saying, "Every dollar counts." However, he also noted that the recommendation was very strong to create the position.

Tuttle then suggested that other contiguous towns be checked to see if they have paid or unpaid similar positions.

MILLBURY - The Millbury National Bank will host an exhibit of United States paper money, on loan from the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, from June 6 to July 1.

The exhibit, produced by the Treasury's Bureau of Engraving and Printing, depicts various stages in the evolution of paper money in this country. It consists of five panels illustrating different types, series, and denominations of currency. Facsimiles of U.S. Notes, Federal Reserve Notes, and Gold and Silver Certificates will be on display, as well as a replica of one of the few $100,000 U.S. Gold Certificates printed.

Free supplementary literature on coins and currency will also be available.

The Millbury National Bank is open Monday through Wednesday, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Thursday until 4 p.m., and Friday until 6 p.m.
